Chapter 1 by Sosman56

The date is 7/12/2156. Four days ago there was a bank robbing at Bright Forest nation bank in Rust wood Trax state line. The robbers were described as a tall male about 6'1 and a small female about 5'4 to 5'6. The suspects were suspected of wearing masquerade mask. The man was described wearing a black jacket with a blue and red nautical star on the back and worn down black cargo pants. The woman was described wearing a black dress going slightly past her thigh, leggings were noticed to be under the dress with hole all over them. The are both heavily armed and are extremely dangers. ~ Report written by Officer Bradley callion.

“How much longer until we are home” The woman said with impatience and a hint of worry in her voice. The car then made a sharp turn. The woman slid to the other side of the back seat. The driver takes another sharp turn this time into a parking garage. The car stops a few feet from a door. A man gets out of the car for the passenger seat and opens the back door. The man holds out his hand

“Come on Cass. The boss is waiting for us upstairs.” Cass gets out of the car taking the man’s hand.

Jacksons let out a slight cough as cass covered her nose unable to stand the smell. At the end of the hallway stood a metal door with a slot at the top. Jackson knocked on the door three times the last knock the hardest. The slot opened up too have a pair of eye staring at them.

"What's the password." A squeaky voice said trying to sound menacing. Jackson pushed the door open, as he did a thud was hear hitting the ground behind the door.

"How many times do I have to tell you Nick. We don't have a password so don't for one." Jackson said helping nick off the ground.

"Don't be so hard on the kid. He just want's to keep us all safe." Cass said gently with a kind smile as she pats his head.

"I'm not a kid and my name is Night not nick!" He said pouting. Jackson let out a smile and pulled out a coin putting it in nick's hand.

"Keep it safe for me alright, Night?" With a smile nick takes the coin.

"Aye aye captain Jack" Jackson smiled and nodded towards the bar. Cass followed but felt a tug on her dress. It was nick

"You don't think I am useless. Do you?" Nick was staring at his feet unable to look up.

"No, I think you are very useful. Don't ever think you aren't, Night so keep your chin up alright?" Cass went down on one knee and lifted his chin up so revlie tears running down his face. She kisses his forehead and got back up hugging him.

"Thank you miss cassidy." He hugged her back and went back to the door. Cassidy caught up with jackson at the bar as he talks to the bartender.

"So what's the news" Jackson smirks lightly takings a sip from a glass bottle. The bartender leans in close and gives a light smile towards cass then turns back to jackson and starts to whisper.

"The word is that benny boy has been back at it to his old ways. The boss ain't too happy about it but he doesn't have any proof about it. Yet, that's were you and cassidy come in. The boss just want that "bussien" taken care of he doesn't care how." The bartender said cleaning a glass with a towel. Jackson nodded slapping down a few dollars bills then getting up and walking towards the other end of the bar to a door with two men standing by it. Jack lets out a small smile.

"I'm here to see Triss she promised me some goodies" He says as he opens the door. Cass
